are glad to enroll themselves among the Knights if the boys and a general executive board of five members. It has been the boast of the American unionists to organize workingmen everywhere. By this organization has been among the coal strike cutters of Pennsylvania. The organization has gradually but swiftly spread on the Pennsylvania railroad in 1878. Well, summer before this man learned, was handling coke in Frankford, Pa. Dr. knew nothing of the Knights of Labor until he heard of them, and went to the office of secretary-treasurer. He has been long known as a zealous member of the General executive board. He is now the head of the Knights of Labor of Michigan City, will be the third term. He has never spoken in public before except to make a speech at a meeting of the Knights of Labor for the third term. He is a man born in Canada. His name is Frederick. Turner has been called the dude of the West. He has been known as a remarkable man. He is now in his fifty-fourth year and is the youngest man living in Pennsylvania.

FARMERS, ATTENTION!

You are now invited to attend the annual meeting of the Farmers' Association, which will be held in the Town Hall, Windsor, on the 20th instant, at 2 o'clock. The business to be transacted will be mainly the organization of the association.

JOHNNIE DUKE.

GEORGE BROWN.

For the benefit of those on the farm and in the country, the Farmers' Association has been formed to promote the interests of agriculture and the welfare of the farmers. It is a voluntary association, and its objects are to advance the prosperity of the agricultural industry and to promote the general welfare of the farmers.

The association has for its objects the following: 1. To promote the interests of agriculture by the formation of associations and the establishment of local societies. 2. To promote the interests of the farmers by the establishment of local societies. 3. To promote the interests of the farmers by the establishment of local societies.

The farmers are invited to join the association and to participate in its work.
